August 22, 2014

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Christian greetings to you, welcome to our new and returning adventurers. We look forward to partnering with you and your child for a rewarding spiritual experience, as we continue our Adventurer Club here at Kendalwood for 2014/2015.

The Adventurer Club's main purpose and desire is to work with the parent and child in leading them into a deeper experience with Jesus Christ. By involving Adventurers and their parents in a four-fold program of spiritual, mental, recreational and social activities, our intention is to guide the younger ones up the ladder of character growth and development.

The Adventurer staff is looking forward to having a good time with you as a family. We have planned a fun program for you and you won't want to miss it.

Enclosed you will find a registration form, a health form and a parental release form to be completed and returned. Returning Adventurers do not need to complete the release form. A workbook is required to complete the curriculum for the year. The cost of the workbook is $10.00.

The registration form should be submitted with $20.00 ($16.00 to cover the workbook and registration fee, along with the mandatory Insurance fee of $4.00 for each child. ($65.00 upfront for the year). Each Counselor and Volunteer (including parents) of the club must also submit the $4.00 insurance fee. Please make cheques payable to "Kendalwood SDA Church".

LITTLE LAMBS

The Little Lamb program is treated as a parent/child partnership, and the child will gain much in the interaction with other children. The Little Lamb will be recognized for his/her work and will be invested along with the Adventurer Club. The child must be 4 years old by September 1st of the year they are enrolled in the Little Lamb program.

The Little Lamb curriculum is organized around the four basic relationships in a child's life: my God, myself, my family and my world.

EAGER BEAVER PROGRAM

This program is designed for kindergarten-age boys and girls. The Eager Beaver program and its curriculum are separate from the Adventurer program. In fact, the Eager Beaver program is different from both the Pathfinder and Adventurer programs primarily because it involves a parent-child partnership, while the Adventurer and especially the Pathfinder programs are club organizations. Ideally, parents and their children will do the Eager Beaver activities together. The Eager Beaver Club utilizes hands-on activities, geared specifically for this age group, to provide experiences and develop skills that will be beneficial throughout life.

ADVENTURER SONG

We are Adventurers!
At home at school at play
We are Adventurers!
We're learning everyday
To be honest, kind and true
To be like Jesus through and through
We are Adventurers!

The Adventurer program is designed to support parents in assisting children with the challenging task of developing fully as followers of Christ in today's world. The program aims to strengthen the parent/child relationship and to further the child's development in spiritual, physical, mental, and social areas. Through the Adventurer Program, the church, home, and school can work together with the parent to develop a mature, happy child.

1. Children will, at their own level, commit their hearts and lives to Jesus Christ.
2. Children will gain a positive attitude toward the benefits, joys, and responsibilities of living a Christian life
3. Children will acquire the habits, skills and knowledge needed to live for Jesus today
4. Parents and other primary care-givers will become more confident and effective as co-laborers with Christ for their children.
